Notably, the boat is equipped with unique balconies that can be dropped down, offering a 360-degree seaview and expanding the side walkways. The exterior includes a bar, a hydraulic bathing platform, and a spacious flybridge. Ample storage space ensures practicality and organization. The gyro stabilization system makes sure the yacht does not rock from side to side so you will not get sea sick.

During the personal tour that you can watch in the walkthrough video below you will witness the impressive functionality of the balconies, which almost double the boat's size when opened. The hydraulic bathing platform effortlessly launches the tender, providing easy access to the water. Additionally, the cockpit features a grill, a sink, and practical storage spaces.

The interior boasts an open kitchen layout, panoramic sea views, and a comfortable saloon with a table that can be extended. The owner's cabin stands out with its spacious ensuite bathroom, large windows, and clever storage solutions. The forward VIP cabin and kids' cabin provide cozy and stylish accommodations. On the flybridge, a wet bar, a pop-up table, and a well-equipped helm station await.

The Okean 50 fly offers an appealing blend of luxury and functionality, making it an excellent choice for family cruising. From its innovative balconies to the hydraulic platform and well-designed interior spaces, the boat provides a comfortable and enjoyable experience at sea.

With the explorer look of her exterior design she also combines practicality with bold design.

The twin Volvo Penta IPS engines together with the joystick make it really easy to maneuver also in strong winds while docking.

If you're looking for a well-maintained vessel that offers practical features and a touch of elegance, this Okean 50 fly is worth considering. Feel free to reach out for further details about this attractive offering located in the South of France.

NOTE: Tender and toys are not included in the sales price.
